

Chapter 1

this is Noise.

This is the pink place

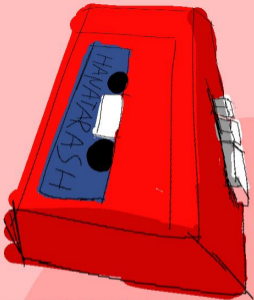

Noise has been here for as long as she can remember, although that might not have been very long at all. No one is quite sure what this place is, but I'll do my best to explain what I can basically, it's a place. And it's pink. Yeah the name isn't very inventive I'll be honest. Anyway, it seems to go on forever, or at least for a very long time. Most of it is just

P I N K .

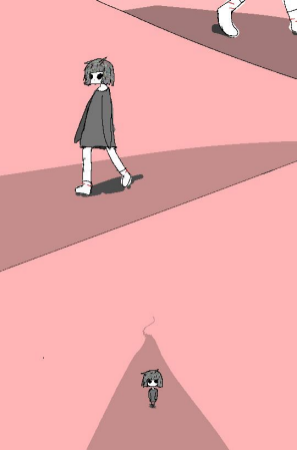

But there's some other stuff in here. Like Noise for example. Even though this place is very pink, she seems to be able to walk around and stuff. Sometimes she finds things that aren't pink. Like here's a cassette player she found a near some sort of giant crystalline structure a while ago. Sometimes she finds tapes for it on the floor. Looks like she's been listening to Hanatarash.

Noise has decided to walk in this direction today.
I guess we'll tag along and see what she finds (my bet is on her finding a lot of pink stuff)

Noise came to a series of platforms. It looks like the path continues up there, looks like she's gonna try and climb up I'm assuming she's done this before, she looks pretty confident in her hops ahh, she made it. That's nice. It would have been bad if she fell. Then again, the pink stuff is pretty soft, so I don't think it would have hurt that much. Well I say it's pretty soft, it's not always soft. It's a lot of things really. Is there a word for something that's soft as a sheep but also solid like a wooden desk at the same time? It doesn't really make sense but somehow it can do that. Hey don't look at me man I'm just some floating words I don't have all the answers so yeah, this is the pink place, it's pretty one note if I'm honest. One weird thing about the pink place is how there's not lights, but there just sort of is light. Like it just sort of exists everywhere. Sometimes things are in shadow but if you try and look for the light source you'll just get really confused because the world can't decide. All in all, it's a pretty weird place to be. And Noise wants to get out. Every day she walks until she no longer can, searching for something other than all consuming pink, however so far she's made very little progress. But since there's nothing else to do around here so she just keeps going, hoping to find at least something to break up the monotony, and maybe a way to whatever is outside of the pink place.
